PROMINENT PLANTERS GATHER IN ATLANTA

Farmers' Union Pledge Cooperation With Wool Growers.

RESOLUTIONS WERE ADOPTED

Over 1,000 Delegates Were in Line When Members of the Union Met for the March to Hall of Representatives at the Capitol.

Atlanta, Jan. 24.—Fully one thousand officers and delegates of the Farmers' National Union, representing every southern state and a large number of western and northern states, wee gathered about the Grady monument Tuesday morning for a few minutes before 9 o'clock. Promptly on the hour the delegates formed in a column of twos, and preceded by the colorbearer carrying the handsome silk flag of the organization, with President Charles S. Barrett and the board of national directors at the head of the column, took up the line of march to the state capitol, where the first session of the convention was called to order at 10 o'clock by President Barrett.

The long column of marching delegates attracted much attention, and their enthusiasm was infective, cheers being given these hardy yeomen—the backbone and sinew of the country on whose sturdy shoulders rest the prosperity of our cities—as they evinced their enthusiasm in their cause by tinkling bells and blowing horns.

The convention called to order by President Barrett, the doors were closed, after which divine blessing was invoked by Rev. L. N. Holmes, of Louisiana, national chaplain of the union. True to the teaching of the simple faith of country life, the delegates sang with fervor that old familiar hymn, "How Firm a Foundation, Ye Saints of the Lord." President Barrett then made his opening address, arousing the greatest enthusiasm in the convention, applause intercepting the speaker at frequent inrals.

Then the convention immediately entered upon the consideration of business, the first matter to be considered being the appointment of committees which provides the real work of the convention.

Tuesday's session was but the initiatory work of the convention, the morning session being take up largely with the appointment and organization of the committees, and at the afternoon session there was not much accomplished, beyond that transacted in the committee rooms.

Several important resolutions were adopted, however. The first of these was a resolution introduced and later adopted in response to a telegram from the National Wool Growers' convention, now in session at Salt Lake City, Utah, the terms of the resolution pledging the union's co-operation with the Wool Growers association for the purpose of establishing mills, the products of which are to be sold to the stockholders.

At 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the convention adjourned until Wednesday morning, in order taht delegates might have an apportunity to arrive at the Baptist Tabernacle in time to secure seats to hear the address of Hon. Thomas E. Watson at 8 o'clock.

For an hour and forty minutes Hon. Thomas E. Watson held under his magic influence and power of logic and oratory an audience of 3,500 people, who had gathered to hear his address on the subject, "National Farmers' Union," of which he is one of the moving spirits, and at the invitation of which the address was delivered.

Not for a moment did Mr. Watson lose the close attention of his audience. By far the most striking incident of the speaking was the indorsement given by the immense audience to President Roosevelt, attesting their approbation of his course in the Brownsville, Tex., matter, in regard to the negro troops in the United States army. At Mr. Wat- every man, woman and child rose to express a vote of thanks to the president.

Mr. Watson's address was chiefly a review of the conditions against the institution of this republic, a comparative statement of his resources and the conditions which surrounded him at ten-year periods, and what caused the unparalleled success of the banker, manufacturer and railroader during the same periods, in contradistinction to the depletion of the farmer's wealth and his heavy increase of debt.

In lighter vein Mr. Watson referred humorously to the new firm of "Jordan and Livingston," and there were shouts of approval and loud laughter from many of the delegates.

Mr. Watson declared that in 1846 England supplanted her protective tariff with free trade, the result being an increase in ane generation from $600,000,000 to $300,000,000.

"Mind you," said Mr. Watson, "I am making no effort here to get the Farmers' Unioin to go into politics but as an individual, if he does not go into politics, does not go into politics as deep as he can wade, right up to the chin, to save his home, there'll be no relief from the conditions which now obtain."

Mr. Watson demonstrated how one state—Pennsylvania—had outstripped nine southern states in the race for wealth, because of the McKinley protective tariff, and the state of New York alone made three millions of dollars more than the entire south.

"Some of our people in the south go into raptures when they hear that northern capital is to come south and open up a cotton mill. What difference does it make whether the manufacturer remains in the north to rob you, or comes here to do it? I prefer that they should stay in the north and rob me from that point, rather than come here and grind up little white children into dividends.

In speaking of the railroads, Mr. Watson said that the roadbeds are permitted to run down, the ties rot under the rails and are not replaced, locomotives which should be in the shop are running on the rails, men are worked overtime until engineer or train dispatcher, exhausted beyond the point of endurance, fall asleep at their posts, and people are ruthlessly slaughtered. This system has been pursued to the point where they kill their own president in the effort to make larger dividends.

The speaker declared that the great American family consisted of four brothers—the farmer, the banker, the railroader and the manufacturer—and that the three big brothers should see that their little brother, the farmer, got a square deal, and if they don't do it, he should make them do it.

Mr. Watson then contrasted the time when the south was the home of a happy, God-fearing, prosperous people, and that although slavery existed, those were the best slaves and received the best treatment known in the history of mankind. He contrasted another slavery which he declared existed in this day and time, but far worse. The negro slave, when young, was not forced to work, the sick were tenderly taken care of, and old age protected; but the white child slave of today is made to work, the sick are neglected and left to die, finding rest at last in a potter's field.

Here the speaker drew with that power of imagary which he is the master a picture of the old southern home. There were tears in many eyes when he concluded this. Mr. Watson next addressed himself directly to the Farmers' Union. He urged that body to emulate the example of the banker, the railroad magnate, and the manufacturer, permitting none to enter save his own kind.

Mr. Watson declared that there had not been and was no overproduction of cotton. "Lower the tariff," he said, "and go abroad with your cotton and sell the foreigner and let him come here and sell his goods to you." Mr. Watson ridiculed the idea that the conditions which prevail could be cured by anti-bucket shop legislation, which, he declared, was the remedy which Harvie Jordan had for all the ills of the country.

Mr. Watson advised the farmers to go slow on immigration. He declared that he preferred to see the fields of the south grow up in field pine rather than see it overrun with hordes of foreigners, representing the vice, crime and poverty of southern Europe. He expressed himself as favoring the importation of Germans and Swedes of the better class, but advised that rigid measures be adopted to prevent the wealth-hating, law-despising classes of southern Europe. He declared that the negro was here to stay, and that the solution of the negro question lay in the enforcement of the vagrancy law against the white as well as the negro vagabond, and that the laws of the land should be impartially administered between blacks and whites alike.

"I'd give the negroes," said Mr. Watson, "absolutely every legal protection and right to which they are entitled, holding for myself all the political privileges and all the political power. Ninety per cent of the negro race wond be satisfied with this order of things, and 10 per cent would be dissatisfied with it. Of that 10 per cent, 9 per cent would be Afro-Americans."

GOV. SWETTENHAM REPLIES TO OFFICIALS

Who Demanded an Explanation of His Conduct.

THEY ARE ANGRY AT GOVERNOR

Investigation is Being Conducted in Secret—A Well Defined Movement Has Been Inaugurated to Demand That He Resign and Leave Isle.

London, Jan. 24.—The government here has heard from Governor Swettenham, of Jamaica, concerning the incident involving the departure of the American battleships from the harbor of Kingston.

Absolute secrecy as to the contents of the communication, but the fact is elicited that during the night a good many telegrams were received from Swettenham, some of which deal with the incident.

These, it is believed, confirm the main features of the affair as already known. It is not the present intention of the colonial office to make the telegrams public, the official view being that it is a personal affair between a government department and a government official, which is properly adjustable between them; therefore, the authorities incline to the view that the governor general interests will be best served by having the replies appear in a blue book at some distant period, in the meantime being dealt with by the usual diplomatic channels for intercourse between power and power.

WILL DEMAND FULFILLMENT.

Of the Taft-Bacon Pact in the Cuban Affairs.

Havana, Jan. 24.—A meeting in the office of General Garcia Velez Tuesday, of General Guas, General Marquetti, General Arancibia, General Mero and General Fuste has resulted in all waiting on leader Zayas, president of the exeutive committee of the Liberal party at 11 o'clock Tuesday night and delivering to him an important resolution regarding the present condition in Cuba.

The resolution stated that if the executive committee was unable to demand Governor Magoon's fulfillment of the Taft-Bacon pact, then the five gentlemen named would wait upon Magoon personally and demand its fulfillment.

In the event that Governor Magoon should declare that he knows of no such pact, the generals will go to Washington and interview Taft and Bacon. Should they, too, fail to reveal the terms, an appeal will be taken to President Roosevelt, after which they will be better able to judge what to do.

The generals claim they have the support of al the generals who took part in the last two revolutions, and that all will insist upon the fulfillment of the pact.

HEAVY FIRE LOSS AT RICHMOND

Heart of Business Section in Virginia Capital Gutted by Flames.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 24.—Fire at an early hour Wednesday morning gutted the heart of the business section of Richmond. The losses are estimated so far at over a million dollars.

The fire started at 1:45 a. m. in the Williams building. Here are located the quarters of the Adams Express company, the Seabury Tobacco company, and the armory of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, the oldest military organization in the United States.

The Blues' armory was stocked with 500,000 rounds of ammunition, which exploded during the fire. Spectators fled in terror.

William Cameron, manager of the Seabury Tobacco company, says his stock is insured for about $40,000, which will about cover the loss.

Five hundred girls employed in the cigarette department, will be thrown out of work.

The handsome uniforms of the Blues were burned.

Charged with Vagrancy.

Atlanta, Jan. 24.—Judge Broyles bound over on the charge of vagrancy, under $200 bond, Anderson Hightower, Robert George, Tom DeFoor and J. E. Colton, and fined Ray Clapper $15 and costs. On Sunday night, after raiding the Chinese "hop joints," Captain Jett and Officers Wood, Chewning, Reed and Dorsett sent to the police station the five young men. The main accusation made by the authorities was idling and loitering. Roy Clapper was fined $15 and costs for occupying a portion of a disorderly house.

Will Have to Re-Incorporate.

Baton Rouge, La., Jan. 24.—A decision that the burial associations of this state which conduct funerals and give cash benefits in return for a weekly payment of ten cents, must comply with the state insurance laws, has been handed down by Attorney General Guion. In consequence the burial companies will have to re-incorporate and have a paid up capital of at least $100,000 each.

10,000 Bales of Cotton Removed.

Vicksburg, Miss., Jan. 24.—Ten thousand bales of cotton have been removed in anticipation of flood water in the [illegible] river frfom the lower country here. A stage of 52 feet is generally predicted here, and this will put the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad tracks under water.

Dynamite Used on Kentucky Bank.

Crittenden, Ky., Jan. 24.—Citizens were aroused early in the day by a terrific explosion, the vault of the Tobacco Growers' Deposit bank having been blown to pieces. The robbers were evidently frightened away, as they took only $500, leaving $4,000 in the vault.

EMOTIONAL INSANITY DEFENSE OF THAW

Slayer of Architect Stanford White Faces Trial.

THE FAMILY TO WITNESS TRIAL

London and Paris Newspapers Have Sent Special Correspondents to Witness Proceedings—Great Interest is Manifested—Police Were Busy.

New York, Jan. 24.—The trial of Harry K. Thaw, for killing Stanford White began Wednesday before Justice Fitzgerald in the criminal branch of the supreme court. Two hundred talesmen have been summoned, and from them a jury is to be selected. It is expected that it will take at least a week to fill the jury box.

The selection of the jury will be one of the important features of the case, and during the examination of the talesmen, it is expected that the line of defense will, in a measure, be indicated.

Criminal lawyers generally have taken an interest in the case, and it is their opinion that the "unwritten law" and emotional insanity will play a large part in the efforts of Thaw's lawyers to obtain freedom for their client. This being so, it is expected that Thaw's counsel will endeavor to obtain only such jurymen as would be influenced by the pleas indicated.

Thaw is said to have been studying up criminal trials during the last few days. It is understoond that he intends to take a very active part in the selection of the jury. He intends to see, it is said, that no juror is selected unless it is with his approval.

Thaw will be seated beside his counsel, at the head of which will be Mr. Hartridge. Mr. Delmas, the Californian, will play an important part later in Thaw's defense. On the prosecution's side will be Mr. Jerome and Mr. Garvan will attend mostly to the selection of the jurors. Mr. Jerome will cross-examine the defendant's witnesses and conduct the direct examination of the people's witnesses.

Of Thaw's family, there will be in court his mother, his wife, his two sisters, Mrs. Carnegie and the Countess of Yarmouth, and his brother, Edward. The Thaws will occupy seats directly behind the defendant. There will be no room for outsiders, certainly not while the jury is being selected.

Great preparations have been made for covering the Thaw trial. A telegraph company has strung wires into the court house and a telegraph office has been erected temporarily on the main flooor.

Many out-of-town newspapers will have reporters at the trial and even far away London and aPris have sent correspondents, so widespread is the interest in the remarkable tragedy that saw the death of Stanford White at the hands of Harry K. Thaw, the son of one of America's rich men.

Scenes approaching absolute disorder attended the opening of the trial. Most of the clashes were between reporters and correspondents, and the police. Of the newspaper men, there were perhaps 200 and there was a policeman for each. The great squad of blue-coats was commanded by a police inspector. Only about 50 newspaper writers finally were admitted, the raminder of space in the court room being reserved for the 200 talesmen summoned on the special jury panel.

Deming O. Smith, about 50 years of age, a retired umbrella manufacturer, was accepted and sworn as the first juror. He was the second talesman examined.

Loubet for the Senate.

Paris, Jan. 24.—Former President Loubet, according to reports among senators, intends to be a candidate for the senate. M. Loubet, in reply to the questioning of a friend, said that as he had nothing to do, he would like the occupation. The conditions prevailing at the next election, he added, would decide whether he should accept a nomination.

Complaints That Trains Are Setting Fire to City Property.

There has been considerable complaint, and probably with just cause, that the trains of the Atlantic Coast Line are setting fire to many places within the city limits of recent date.

The latest report which comes to The Sun is one of great gravity. A certain prominent citizen and business man who resides on West Main street South, not very many yards from the square, stated that on Wednesday night about 11 o'clock, while he was in bed, his attention was attracted to a bright glare on the window-pane. He got out of bed, pulled the curtain aside, and noticed that a great blaze was raging in the lot adjoining him, which was growing in high grass as dry as a bone.

Hastily donning the necessary clothing, the aforesaid citizen rushed into the street and notified his neighbors, as it was feared the flames, which were leaping high with plenty to feed upon, would reach and envelop his home. Several responded, and after a time the flames were extinguished.

The complainant states that he is sure this fire was caused by a spark from a locomotive, as a train of the Atlantic Coast Line had passed there only a few moments before.

The railroad company should be compelled to place spark arresters on their engines, in order to protect those along its line from fire. Several valuable homes and properties have been burned recently on account of failure of the transportation company to do this.

A Merchant-Farmer.

John Chesnut, the merchant who has been for many years indentified in the commercial field here, has proved that he is not only a good grocer, but a good farmer as well, as he owns a fine farm in the vicinity of Alachua, and is farming from a practical standpoint.

Thursday Mr. Chesnut brought to market several hundred pounds of as fine lard as could be found in the country. In the meantime his wagons were en route to the cold storage, where he placed several hundred pounds of hams and shoulders for curing, and a proportionate amount was left at home in the shape of ribs and other parts.

Mr. Chesnut as a farmer has made a great success, and will make his farm a paying proposition this year.

A JAPANESE PARTY.

The members of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union, Senior, enjoyed a very novel entertainment at the home of Mrs. J. R. Emerson, West Masonic street, Wednesday night.

There was a large crowd present, and they were very much impressed and pleased with the nature of the program, which was entirely of Japanese origin. There were no chairs, so each guest was furnished with a Japanese cushion, and considerable amusement was experienced in the novel manner of seating the guests. The ladies were attired in Japanese costumes, some of which were really handsome.

The evening was passed in a manner appropriate to the occasion, the program comprising music, games, etc.

Refreshments, comprising tea and chocolate and cakes, were served—Misses Nina Cellon and Ruth Scarartt serving at the urns.

The occasion was one of the most enjoyable social functions of the season, and those present are under obligations to Mrs. Emerson.

THE METHODIST REVIVAL.

Large Congregations Present at Both Services on Thursday.

Increased interest seems to characterize the revival which has been in progress at the First Methodist Church since Tuesday, and large congregations were present at each service yesterday. Both services were conducted by Rev. Burke Culpepper, son of Rev J. B. Culpepper, the latter being slighty indisposed, but the sermons were highly interesting, as the father and son generally work together and as a natural consequence the son has acquired to a great extent the gifts of his father in revival work.

The services today will be held at the usual hours—3 and 7:30 p. m., and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend. However, at the afternoon service the sermon will be especially adapted to the children and young people, and it is hoped that all will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend. At this service Mr. Burke Culpepper will deliver the sermon, and in the evening the meeting will be conducted by Rev. J. B. Culpepper.

FRED DOYLE PROMOTED.

Has Been Made Florida Manager of the Cudahy Packing Company.

The numerous friends throughout the State of Fred Doyle will be pleased to learn that he has been promoted to be manager for Florida of the Cudahy Packing Company of Omaha, Neb., with headquarters in Jacksonville.

Mr. Doyle has been for several years connected with the Cudahy Packing Company in the capacity of salesman. About three years ago he was relieved of the Florida territory and placed as a "specialty" man, being assigned to five or six Southern States. So remarkably successful have his efforts been that his employers have decided upon the promotion, which he is now filling with the utmost efficiency and satisfaction.

A Delightful Party.

Mesdames W. T. Chesnut and C. S. Robertson entertained a number of ladies at the home of the former, Alachua avenue, E., Wednesday afternoon, at cards.

Progressive whist, which was formerly so popular, but which has been somewhat relegated by the introduction of the new game of five hundred, was the attraction of the afternoon, and the game was played with great energy. Whist has always been and will always prove popular among those who claim to know the true value of cards, hence the contest was a most interesting one. At the conclusion it was ascertained that the first prize, a handsome painting of a Holland scene, had been won by Mrs. Alderman. Mrs. Warden was the winner of the consolation prize.

During the afternoon delicious refreshments, comprising a salad course, were served.

The home was beautifully decorated with evergreens and pot plants, which lent enchantment. In all the entertainment was one which will long be remembered, and those present are under obligations to Mesdames Chesnut and Robertson.

For Marshal.

I respectfully announce my candidacy for the office of City Marshal at the election on April 9th, 1907. If elected I shall perform the duties of the office without fear or favor.

Noah was the founder of indigestion—He forgot to leave the pigs ashore

The American people in consequence have ever since been victims of lard cooked food and indigestion.

Lard soaked food is not fit for human stomachs because lard is made from greasy, indigestible hog fat, and is bound, sooner or later, to make trouble for your inner machinery.

Cottolene is the only rational, national shortening. It is a pure vegetable product and its source (the cotton fields of the Sunny South) is in striking contrast to the source of lard (the pig-sty).

Cottolene is a clean, wholesome product that makes food palatable, nutritious and healthful, and food that any stomach can digest. If American housewives but knew the superiority of Cottolene over lard, both from a practical and health standpoint, lard would never again enter any well-regulated kitchen.

COTTOLENE was granted a GRAND PRIZE (highest possible award) over all other cooking fats at the recent Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and food cooked with COTTOLENE another GRAND PRIZE.

"Home Helps" a book of 300 choice recipes, edited by Mrs. Rorer, is yours for a 2 cent stamp, if you address The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago.

A NEW FEATURE—The patent air-tight top on this pail is for the purpose of keeping COTTOLENE clean, fresh and wholesome; it also prevents it from absorbing all disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

Tennessee's Governor's Message.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 24.—Gov. Malcolm R. Patterson's first message to the legislature which was read on Wednesday, recommended increased appropriations for pensions and the state militia, the creation of additional experiment stations and state aid to counties for education of the children. The governor asks that the power to appoint commissioners of election be taken out of his hands "as being dangerous and arbitrary," and the constituting therefor of a state board of election commissioners one member to be selected frfom each grand division of the state. He recommends a full investigation of the charges of alleged combinations of insurance companies, both life and fire, and asks that a pure food law passed in 1879, which has been a dead letter, be vitalized.

In the state senate the vote was 19 in favor of Senator Bailey, and 10 against him, and in the lower house Senator Bailey received 89 votes and 35 were cast against him.

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 24.—A special to the News from Tchula, says that the business portion of that town has been wiped out by fire. The fire started at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning. The loss will be about $40,000, with insurance to cover about half this amount. The fire was gotten under control after a long, vigorous fight.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Annual Meeting Showed Library in Fine Condition—Some Suggestions.

The Public Library is growing and proves to be in a very flourishing condition—from reports made at the first annual meeting of the Library Association, which was held at the Library rooms on Jan. 10th, 1907.

The following is the report of the executive committee, which is given here for the benefit of the members:

Every subscriber to the Library being a member of the association, is admitted to all the privileges of the association.

On Jan. 1st, 1906, the Gainesville Public Library was established through the efforts of the Twentieth Century Club, at which time their entire library of 300 volumes were turned over to the association, and the executive committee was requested to fit up new quarters and move the library, which was done, and it was opened to the public Jan. 10th.

During the same month there was a donation from the Board of Public Instruction of the old East Florida Seminary Library composed of 480 volumes.

The Philomathic Circle donated three volumes, Mrs. W. M. Bradford seven volumes, Mrs. G. B. Crawford nine volumes, Mrs. C. A. Colclough seventeen volumes, Mrs. W. N. Sheats seven volumes, Mrs. Geo. Reddick one volume, Mrs. W. M. Dale one volume, Mrs. A. L. Foster two volumes, Mrs. J. W. Tench eleven volumes, Mrs. Margaret Howard twenty volumes, Mrs. Chapman one volume, The Twentieth Century Club eight volumes, Mrs. C. A. Colclough five volumes, Mrs. T. F. McBeath eleven volumes, The Twentieth Century Club eleven volumes.

Magazines have been donated regularly by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Goodwin, and occasionally by others. To this the purchasing committee have added current literature and late fiction as the library funds would allow. It now numbers 1,158 volumes, an increase of 858 volumes during the year.

The library not being self-supporting, the executive committee was called upon early in February to raise money with which to meet the current expenses of the year. A dramatic and musical entertainment was decided upon, which came off May 15th, and from which was realized $152. Another was given October 25th, which netted $15 50, and thus expenses were met and the interest of the library kept up by adding a few new books occasionally.

In the work of fitting up the library rooms and getting up these entertainments we have met with great encouragement from the people generally, and from the business men particularly, who have made liberal donations from time to time.

We think the Pepper Publishing Company are due special mention and thanks for the liberal discounts on materials and work, and also to The Gainesville Sun for the very generous amount of advertising they have done for the library.

The coming year we hope to make the library self-supporting, and to this end the executive committee recommend that a woman's exchange be established in connection with the Library Association, believing that such an exchange, if properly conducted, would pay all the expenses of the library. It was also recommended that the books be catalogued and printed in pamphlet form and kept in the library at a nominal sum for the convenience of the subscribers; also that the library rules be adopted, and printed in large plain type and put in the library.

The above recommendations were unanimously adopted by the association, and the woman's exchange will be established at once, and we earnestly ask the hearty co-operation of the public in this work of maintaining the Public Library.

Chairman Ex. Com. for 1906.

France Overwhelmingly Supported.

Paris, Jan. 23.—In the chamber Monday the government was interpellated by Socialist deputies in regard to the closing of the labor situation and the question of the proposed demonstration on Sunday. The premier, M. Clemenceau, in replying, said that he had only respected the law of weekly rest by allowing the citizens to walk and rest peaceably. Directly addressing the Socialists, he said: "The democracy is not you; it is everybody." Amid cheers in the chamber, the government was supported by a vote of 444 to 59.

BANK'S SAFE DYNAMITED.

Robbery Amounted to from $1,500 to $1,800.

Green Cove, Fla., Jan. 24.—The safe in the bank here was dynamited at 2 o'clock and robbed of $1,500 or $1,800. The force of the explosion was so great that the glass front of the building was shattered. Several persons heard two distinct explosions, but did not go out to investigate. A passing baker discovered the wrecked glass front at 5 o'clock and gave the alarm.

Sheriff Weeks and posse took the trail and during the morning came upon four white men asleep near the road 8 miles south of here. As the posse approached, the men awoke and at once began firing at the sheriff's posse. They returned the fire, fatally wounding one of the men, the bullet passing through his head.

After a desperate struggle the other three were overpowered and bound and are now in jail.

None of the sheriff's posse was injured.

When the men were searched between $3,000 and $4,000 was found in their pockets.

DESIRES TO END UGLY BUSINESS

And Then Go Back to Old England. Surrenders Himself.

Pensacola, Fla., Jan. 24.—Oscar Sanders, one of the six employees of the Jackson Lumber company, convicted here some weeks ago of conspiracy to commit peonage by holding foreigners at the camps of that company, and who has been out on bond pending an appeal of the case to the higher court, reached the city Tuesday from Lockhart, Ala., and appearing before the United States marshal, announced his desire to surrender himself and commence the serving of his sentence of thirteen months in the federal prison, in addition to paying a fine of $1,000.

The marshal could not accept the surrender of the Austrian, who was an interpreter at the camps, owing to the fact that the appeal bond provides that he shall appear before the court on a specified day, but will appear in court to hear the man's statement.

In explanation of his action, Sander made the statement that he knew the decision of the court would not be reversed, and that all would eventually have to serve out their time, so he had decided to get through with the disagreeable business and go to England.

CATARRH GROWING LESS.

Due to the Use of Hyomei—Cures Without Stomach Dosing.

Inquiry at the local drug stores shows that the sale of remedies for catarrh has decreased very much in the last year. Some medicines which were formerly bought a gross at a time are now purchased in half dozen lots, and are rarely called for.

There is one notable exception to this decrease in sale, and that is Hyomei. This remedy is, in fact, responsible for the decrease in sale of catarrh medicines, as it has made so many cures of catarrhal troubles that naturally there is much less demand for remedies for that disease.

People who have been trying different medicines for catarrh during many years were induced to begin the use of Hyomei by J. W. McCollum & Co's. guarantee that this remedy would cost nothing unless cured. Much to their surprise they found that Hyomei did what it claimed (if it did not they could not sell it under this guarantee) and they soon become ardent advocates of the use of Hyomei.

There is no disagreeable stomach dosing with Hyomei; it is used by being breathed through a neat pocket inhaler. The complete outfit costs but one dollar; extra bottles, if needed, fifty cents.

With every Hyomi outfit J. W. McCollum & Co. give their personal guarantee that the money will be refunded unless the treatment cures, so that you run no risk at all in buying this reliable remedy.

Auto Races at Ormond, Fla.

Ormond, Fla., Jan. 23.—The five-mile event from standing start was won Tuesday by Blakely, in a 70-horse power gasoline machine. His time was four minutes, 25 seconds. There was not previous standing start record for this distance. The five-mile event, flying start, open to all weights and powers, was won by Marriott in a 30-horse power steam car in three minutes, forty-five seconds, which is one minute slower than the record. The five-mile match race between a thirty-horse power steamer and a 70-horse power gasoline car was won by W. R. Fites, in the steamer in 3 minutes, 51 and four-fifths seconds.

TIRED AND SICK YET MUST WORK

MRS. AUG. LYON

"Man may work from sun to sun but woman's work is never done."

In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo and often suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

It is to these women that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, comes as a blessing. When the spirits are depressed, the head and back aches, there are dragging-down pains, nervousness, sleeplessness, and reluctance to go anywhere, these are only symptoms which unless heeded, are soon followed by the worst forms of Female Complaints.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

keeps the feminine organism in a strong and healthy condition. It cures Inflammation, Ulceration, displacements, and organic troubles. In preparing for child-birth and to carry women safely through the Change of Life it is most efficient.

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"For a long time I suffered from female troubles and had all kinds of aches and pains in the lower part of back and sides, I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and following the advice which you gave me I feel like a new woman and I cannot praise your medicine too highly."

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of her vast volume of experience she probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

CREST OF FLOOD HAS BEEN REACHED

It Is Believed That the Waters Will Soon Subside.

THE RELIEF WORK CONTINUES

Several Persons Have Lost Their Lives and Thousands of Dollars of Damage Has Been Caused by Flood. Wheat Crop Ruined.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 23.—The cheering information was given out by District Forecaster Walz Tuesday morning that the flood in the Ohio river had reached its crest and that the water which has done so much damage and caused intense suffering among the poorer residents of city living in low lying sections, would begin to subside by night. The river at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning registered 41.2 feet in the canal and had been stationary for two hours. This, together with a cold wave which was due Tuesday night, warrant the assertion that the danger of further serious damage is over.

The river rose steadily all night at the rate of an inch an hour, and the stage at 10 o'clock, when the crest was reached, was about 5 feet lower than the great flood of 1884.

The canal is invisible, and all the locks are under water. Below the locks, where there is a depth of 68 feet of water, the river is several miles wide and is carrying southward a vast amount of small buildings, logs and other debris.

The water Tuesday morning came up to the tracks of the Louisville and Nashville's station at the foot of First street, but the company continued to use the depot. The trains on the Cincinnati division for a distance of 8 miles were operated under difficulty the engines plowing through water in places a foot deep, at full speed, sending the spray high on either side of the tracks.

Entrance for passengers to the Seventh street station, which is used by half a dozen roads, is made over a temporary bridge, the water being a foot or two deep at a dip in the street which lies just outside the station. The water was creeping over one of the tracks to the east of the depot, but the station will not be flooded unless there should be a further rise.

The Henderson Route is the only railroad entering Louisville which has entirely suspended the operation of trains, but the service on the others much interruuption to schedules. This is maintained with difficulty and interruption to schedules. There is considerable delay to the mails in all directions.

Six school buildings have been turned over as temporary homes for the sufferers, in addition to several warehouses and numerous smaller buildings. The city council will appropriate a sum for a relief fund which is being augmented by private subscriptions. Commissaries have been established in several sections of the city. Appeals for aid have been received from many towns in Kentucky.

A section of land surrounding a distillery at Owensboro, Ky., was washed out during the night and part of the building caved in, letting 400 barrels of Kentucky whisky into the river. It is hoped to recover some of it when the flood subsides.

Across the river from Owensboro, in Spencer county, Indiana, a number of houses are flooded. In one house there are two dead bodies, but it is impossible to reach them for burial. Seven hundred cattle are standing in water 2 feet deep near Owensboro.

A siding of the Henderson Route at Hawesville, Ky., was washed into the Ohio river Tuesday morning, taking with it several cars of merchandise.

A dispatch from Evansville reports the river as still rising.

Henry Barwe, who was blown off a bridge at Evansville Saturday night, died Tuesday of his injuries. It is learned that John Lefsher was drowned by the sinking of his shanty boat at the same time.

Dead horses, cattle, mules and hogs with many good-sized farm houses, have been reported floating down the stream by Evansville, and it is believed the entire crop of growing wheat in that vicinity will be destroyed.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 23.—After remaining about stationary for the last three days, the Mississippi river began to rise slowly here Tuesday, the guage marking 32.9 feet.

Flood warnings have been issued to the inhabitants of the lowlands south of here, and every precaution is being taken by levee men to strengthen the structures on the west side of the stream. Members of the St. Francis levee board declare themselves prepared to handle the vast volume of water that is sweeping southward. Old river men predict a stage of from 39 to 40 feet within the next two weeks.

BABY TORTURED BY ITCHING RASH

IMMEDIATE RELIEF AND SPEEDY CURE

"My baby was about nine months old when she had rash on her face and feet. Her feet seemed to irritate her most, especially nights. They would cause her to be broken of her rest, and sometimes she would cry until she was tired out. I had always used Cuticura Soap myself, and had heard of so many cures by the Cuticura Remedies that I thought I would give them a trial. The improvement was noticeable in a few hours, and before I had used one box of the Cuticura Ointment her feet were well and have never troubled her since. I also used it to remove what is known as "cradle cap" from her head, and it worked like a charm as it cleansed and healed the scalp at the same time. Now I keep Cuticura Ointment on hand in case of any little rash or insect bites, as it takes out the inflammation at once. Perhaps this may be the means of helping other suffering babies. Mrs. Hattie Currier, Thomaston, Me., June 9, 1906."

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guranteed at all drug stores. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

LET DISTRICTS GIVE CONTRACTS

Bids Wide Apart on Agricultural School Buildings.

Atlanta, Jan. 23—About thirty bids for the erection of the buildings to be used by the new district agricultural schools, were opened Monday at a meeting of the executive committees from the various boards of trustees held in the senate chamber, at the capitol, and the matter of contracting for these buildings was discussed at length.

As a result of the discussion practically all of the bids submitted were rejected. Some four or five of them were held the entire nine district schools, and about four bids on the work to be done in as many districts.

It was decided, as a result of the discussion, to leave the matter of letting the contract to the board of trustees in each district on account of local reasons. In some districts parties have been given the school a large amount of lumber; other material has been given in other districts. Of course, each district is anxious to secure credit for this free material, and principally for this reason it will be left to each district to let its own contract.

To this end and in order that the contracts may be let as soon as possible, meeting dates were appointed for the trustees in each district, at which new bids will be received for the work in the respective districts, and definite decision will be reached. Governor Terrell will attend each of the meetings. These meetings will be held as follows:

Fifth district, Wednesday, Jan. 23, at Monroe.

First district, Monday, Jan. 28, at Barnesville.

Tenth district, Saturday, Jan. 26, at Sparta.

Eleventh district, Thursday, Jan. 31, at Douglas.

Second district, Friday, Feb 1, at Tifton.

Fourth district, Tuesday, Feb. 5, at Carrollton.

Third district, Thursday, Feb. 7, at Americus.

Eighth district, Thursday, Feb. 14, at Madison.

In the seventh district the people off Cobb county are in charge of the erection of the necessary buildings through the trustees for that district, and in the eighth district the school has not been located; hence the present question of contracts applies only to the nine districts named.

THOUGHTS.

"I feel in myself the future life. I am like a tree once cut down; the new shoots are stronger and livelier than ever. I am rising, I know, towards the sky. The sunshine is on my head. The earth give me its generous sap, but heaven lights me with the reflection of unknown worlds. You say the soul is nothing but the resultant of the bodily powers. Why, then, is my soul more luminous when my bodily powers begin to fail? Winter is on my head, but eternal spring is in my heart. There I breathe at this hour the fragrance of the lilacs, the violets and the roses, as at twenty years. The nearer I approach the end, the plainer I hear around me the immortal symphonies of the worlds which invite me. It is marvellous, yet simple. It is a fairy tale, and it is history. For half a century I have been writing my thoughts in prose and in verse; history, philosophy, drama, romance, tradition, satire, ode and song. I have tried all. But I feel I have not said the thousandth part of what is in me. When I go down to the grave I can say, like so many others, 'I have finished my day's work.' But I cannot say, 'I have finished my life.' My day's work will begin again in the morning. The tomb is not a blind alley; it is a thoroughfare. It closes on the twilight; it opens with the dawn."
—Victor Hugo.

An item is going the rounds of the press that Senator Hunt Harris is making the race for president of the Florida Senate as the anti-administration candidate. Senator Harris is doing nothing of the kind. He is making the race upon his merits, and no one can deny that he is as well qualified for the position of presiding officer as any member of the Senate. He has been a member of the Legislature for twelve consecutive years, four years in the House and eight years in the Senate, and when he shall have served the four years in the Senate for which he was elected last November, will have served sixteen consecutive years, as long consecutive service as any member of the next Legislature.

For the benefit of those who abhor printers' ink as a prime factor to the advancement of their interests, we should state that Sampson—the strong party—was the first man to advertise. He took two solid columns to demonstrate his strength and several thousand people "tumbled" to the scheme. He brought down the house.

The Administration, in its haste to let the contract for the Panama Canal, should remember the old adage, "more haste less speed," and be sure of the safety of the foundation for the great Gatun dam before expending millions that may turn out to be not only useless but dangerous.

For an infant industry needing protection the steel trust has certainly outgrown its puking and puling period and now looms up as a gigantic monopoly which needs tariff protection no longer. And yet the Republicans stand pat.

Stuyvesant Fish says that dear money is a forerunner of national depression. Don't know about the national end of it, but it makes for personal depression all right.

PLEASE DENY IT.

At Gainesville's election last Tuesday on the question of bonding the city to purchase the old East Florida Seminary barracks lot, only seven persons were qualified to vote by reason of having paid poll taxes. The fate of the election was therefore in the hands of voters over 55 years of age, and they decided in favor of bonds.—Dunnellon Advocate.

Brother McCreary, after your splendid services in trying to build up a civic pride in the people of Gainesville, can such things be true? Say that The Advocate is a hideous maligner and save us from a collapse.—Tampa Tribune.

The Dunnellon Advocate has correctly stated the matter, Bro Stovall, but the condition was brought about by the passage of the bond ordinance at a time when no poll taxes had been paid for the year 1906, and the date set for holding the election did not give the people time to qualify. Owing to prevailing conditions it was not deemed advisable to change the date of the election, hence, as The Advocate says, "the fate of the election was therefore in the hands of voters over 55 years of age," and the result, 75 for to four against bonds, shows that the old citizens still manifest "a civic pride in Gainesville." They may be old in years, but when the interests of the city are at stake the elder residents of Gainesville always do their duty.

HAPPY HOMES.

A woman may do her level best to make a happy home for her husband and children, but if she is treated as a slave and only given her board and clothing in payment for her services as mother, wife, cook, laundress, nurse girl, chambermaid and seamstress, is it any wonder that little or no happiness exists in that home? If a mother spoils her son by pampering and waiting on him all the years of his childhood and boyhood, making him think that a man should always be waited on by the woman of his household, is it strange that he expects a wife to do the same, and that, in all likelihood, she either wears out in a few years' such service, or she becomes bitter and disheartened? There are very many reasons why a home may not be found a happy one, and the happiness found therein depends fully as much on the husband as it does upon the wife. We are often told that in every true and ideal marriage both husband and wife must learn to bear and forbear. In every home where happiness exists there must be perfect trust, confidence and love between the husband and wife. There are two kinds of sunshine in the world, and both quite necessary—the one which is caused by the sun's shining outdoors, and the other by its shining in our hearts. Happy homes abound in the heart sunshine, and whether it shines without or not, there is naught but brightness within doors. It is the loving deeds, the cheery, helpful words, and the kindly thoughtfulness, that each member of the family shows toward the others that make an ideal, happy home—a perfect heaven on earth.

"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth and the things therein. He then created man and woman and left the loafers on the corners and in due time they multiplied and then spread into postoffices and depots and the stores. In these places they sit and explain State and national problems that have vexed great minds. While he is thus engaged his wife is out washing for her neighbors, and the poor helpless children are left at home taking care of themselves as best they can. There is nothing more noticeable than a loafer."

Fire Destroys Hamlet, N. C.

Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 24.—Fire, which had its origin in near-by woods, fanned by a high wind, swept into the town of Hamlet, burning over a large portion of it. The big plant of the Carolina Distilling company, 17 loaded box cars, belonging to the Seaboard Air Line, eight residences and the Seaboard freight depot fell a prey to the flames before they were finally conquered by the heroic efforts of citizens, the town having no fire department. The loss is estimated as $75,000, partially insured. Hamlet is 60 miles east of Charlotte, and an important junction point on the Seaboard system.

Wife Charged with Poisoning.

Waynesboro, Miss., Jan. 24.—A murder trial which promises to enliven popular interest as much as the Birdsong-Butler case, is in progress here. R. H. Hall and Mrs. Joseph Mizzell are on trial for the alleged poisoning of the latter's husband. It is claimed by the prosecution that Hall and the woman conspired to kill Mizzell, and evidence has been introduced to show that Hall purchased quantities of strychnine from a druggist, however, failed to identify Hall as the purchaser. Much difference of opinion exists among physicians as to the real cause of Mizzell's death.

Arrested for Bigamy.

Huntsville, Ala., Jan. 24.—Chas. Montgomery, wanted in this county on a charge of bigamy, has been arrested at Rockford, Ala., according to information received by Sheriff William Mitchell. Deputy Sheriff Gardiner has gone to Rockford to return with the prisoner. Montgomery is a white mechanic. He is charged with making a bigamous marriage here and deserting the second wife. He was indicted by the grand jury on this charge several months ago.

PILES

"I have suffered with piles for thirty-six years. One year ago last April I began taking Cascarets for constipation. In the course of a week I noticed the piles began to disappear and at the end of six weeks they did not trouble me at all. Cascarets have done wonders for me. I am entirely cured and feel like a new man." George Kryder, Napoleon, O.

UNPROFITABLE FEEDING

Intelligent stock raisers know that a certain amount of feed is necessary to keep an animal alive. They might feed that amount as long as it lives, and it would never gain a pound.

There is no profit in that kind of feeding. The kind that pays is the kind that builds flesh rapidly. If it takes twenty pounds of food each day to keep a sheep alive, twenty-five pounds a day will make it gain flesh. It's the extra five that brings the profit. The first five pounds amounts to nothing, nor does the second or third or fourth five pounds.

It's the same way with advertising. You have to do a certain amount to overcome the resistance of the public.

You have to do a certain amount of advertising to make them wake up to the fact that you are in business at all. You have to pay a certain amount to keep your advertising alive. What you pay above that amount brings profit.

Some advertisers fail because they do not use enough space. They use barely enough or sometimes not quite enough to make the advertising self sustaining. A little bit more would make it profitable. It is better to advertise a little too much than not quite enough.—Charles Austin Bates.

"BAD LANDS" SCENE OF NEGRO RIOTING

Discharged Black Soldier Created Disturbance.

QUARRELED OVER GAME OF DICE

The Fight Was So Desperate that All of the Officers of Lawton, Okla., Were Called on to Quell Disturbance and Make Arrests.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Lawton, Okla., says:

A negro riot, created by Lane Dixon, a nego reputed to be a discharged soldier from the Twenty-fifth infantry, at Fort Reno, Monday night, resulted in the death of Nat Marshall, negro, the wounding of Dixon and several other negoes, and the arrest of 50 other negros.

Marshall Fawler, of a gambling resort where the negroes had congregated, and Dixon, engaged in a quarrel over a game of dice. Their fight drew others on and a pitched battle resulted.

The fight was so desperate that all of the officers of Lawton were called on to put a stop to it and make the arrests.

Columbus, O., Jan. 23.—Major Glenn, commandant at the barracks, will thoroughly investigate the riot in the "Bad Lands," participated in by about thirty recruits Monday night and the ring leaders will be amply punished. James Sterns, one of the ring leaders, has confessed and given the names of half a dozen of the others, who are now in the guard house. The riot started because a man, William Von Stuckard, told recruits that a negro in the Bad Lands had shot a soldier.

A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder troubles for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure; then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." J. W. McCollum & Co.

CORPSE BOLTED UPRIGHT

Supposed Murdered Negro Suddenly Sat Upright and Crowd Fled.

Augusta, Ga., Jan. 23.—Coroner Ramsey was summoned to a saloon in the suburbs of Augusta by a hasty message to the effect that a negro, George Schune by name, had been murdered by Peter Allen.

When Coroner Ramsey and party arrived, the victim, who had been hit a frightful blow on the head with a brick, was lying, bloody and motionless, on the pavement, surrounded by a hundred gaping blacks.

Preparations were made to move the body to a nearby house and hold an inquest, but when hands were laid upon the supposed corpse, it suddenly bolted upright of its own volition and began an evidently delirious dissertation on craps.

The crowd split in all directions, as instantaneously as if disintegrated by an explosion. Meanwhile the negro regained complete consciousness and was told by a reporter that the coroner had come to hold an inquest over him and was ready to proceed. Real fear convulsed the features of the injured man and he began a piteous supplication for mercy, evidently believing that his life or death was still hanging in the balance. He will recover from his injuries.

OLIVER CALLS ON ROOSEVELT.

Contractor Given Hearing Regarding Canal Contract.

Washington, Jan. 23.—W. J. Oliver, of Knoxville, Tenn., and A. M. Bangs, of New York, the contractors who have submitted the lowest bid for the Panama canal, were granted a hearing at the white house Monday night by the president, Secretary Taft and Chairman Shonts, of the isthmian canal commission. After the conference Chairman Shonts said:

"In view of the fact that a hearing was granted the McArthur-Gillespie company several days ago, we considered it only fair that Oliver and Bangs be given a hearing. They have submitted a statement of facts as to their financial responsibility to carry out the contract. The matter will be fully investigated before any decision is reached."

It was authoritatively stated that the contract probably will be awarded within the next four or five days. If the contract is not given to the Oliver-Bangs company, the lowest bidders, the commission may call for new bids.

Mr. Oliver stated:

"There is no question of our firm being able to qualify for the contract. We have got the money."

Machine Men Given Preference.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Public Printer Stallings has issued a general order in which he says the days of hand composition are fast coming to a close. The order was issued to call attention to the government printing office's night school of instruction on type-setting machines. The school had its first session Monday night. The instruction will be free, but no pay given for the work accomplished. In the event of reduction in the force of printers, the public printer says those who can operate the machines will be given preference.

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Louis Wagner Under Arrest.

New York, Jan. 24.—Louis Wagner, who drove the winning car in last year's automobile race for the Vanderbilt cup, was arrested here for driving a car that did not carry a license tag. Search of Wagner at the police station revealed a revolver and knife and resulted in two charges of carrying concealed weapons being made against him. Bail to the total amount of $1,600 was furnished.

THE COOPER MEDICINE CO., DAYTON, OHIO.

Gentlemen: "I have been laid up with rheumatism for over four years, during all this time I was unable to work and suffered untold agonies from the exeruciating pain. I used all the rheumatism remedies I could hear of and was treated by several physicians without relief, until finally the doctors advised me to try a change of climate. I heard of many people who were cured by Cooper's medicines and purchased several bottles of the New Discovery and Quick Relief. I was amazed at the results. In ten days after I began their use, the pain and swelling had disappeared and I was able to work and walk without suffering. I am thankful that a medicine has been discovered that will cure the dreaded rheumatism."

TROUBLE BREWS IN VENEZUELA

Caracas, Venezuela, Jan. 20.—(Via Willemstad, Curacao, Jan. 22.)—During the night of Jan. 16, Second Vice President Gomez and Minister of War Aranjjo, having reason to believe that an outbreak was impending, attempted to change the officers at the Trinidad barracks here and to place in that building 200 of their own soldiers, Commandant Baza, a distant relative of President Castro, who was in command at the barracks, refused to allow the changes to be made, declaring he would shoot the first man who tried to enter.

Not desirous of bringoing about a crisis at the present moment, Gomez stationed troops to guard all the points of egress from the barracks and prevent the removal of war munitions, which it was suspected Commandant Baza contemplated sending to General Alcantara, the administration candidate for dictator.

The situation is now quiet, Baza remaining undisturbed at the barracks but an outbreak is believed to be possible at any moment.

PLEA OF GUILTY BY FITZGERALD

Promoter of Georgia Colony Is Fined $1,500 and Costs.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23.—Philander H. Fitzgerald, a wealthy attorney of this city, who was indicted at the last session of the federal grand jury on the charge of using the mails with intent to defraud, appeared before Judge A. B. Anderson Monday and entered a plea of guilty. He was fined $1,500 and costs.

Two indictments had been brought against Mr. Fitzgerald by the grand jury. They related that the scheme was in connection with the "1904" colony located in Georgia. It was related that this colony had been established at St. George, Ga.; that Mr. Fitzgerald had the town of St. George surveyed and platted and had sold a large number of lots. From the sales so made, it was alleged, Mr. Fitzgerald received about $70,000, of which $35,000 was not accounted for.

He exhibited them with great pride, as an emblem of the victory Mr. Morris and himself had won.

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do You Fear Consumption?

"When you take into consideration the fact that one out of every seven in this climate dies of consumption, is it any wonder that it is feared by the people of Gainesville who have weak lungs and chronic colds and coughs?" said our local druggist, W. M. Johnson.

"Physicians everywhere have recognized the value of cod liver oil for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption and all wasting diseases, but unfortunately few could take it and derive any benefit from its use on account of the indigestible oil which it contained.

"We want every person in Gainesville to know that Vinol actually contains in a concentrated form all of the body-building, strength-creating elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and tonic iron added.

"Therefore, wherever old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good, Vinol will do far more good. We guarantee Vinol will improve the appetite, strengthen digestion, make rich, red blood, create strength, cure chronic coughs and colds, and strengthen weak lungs."

"If Vinol fails to give satisfaction to our customers, we return money without question."—W. M. Johnson, Druggist.

NOTE.—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Gainesville, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

Geo. L. Taylor, the efficient manager of the Gainesville Peach Orchard Company of Palmer, was transacting business in this city yesterday. The constant warm weather has caused many of the blooms to come out, he says, and if there is no more severe cold the crop will be early and the yield abundant. This company has one of the largest and finest orchards in this section of the State.

H. J. Fowler of Melrose, a progressive and successful farmer of that section, was in the city yesterday, having come to bring a quantity of meat to the cold storage. Mr. Fowler states that the people of his section were not affected much by the cold either one way or another, and that the farmers as a rule were in good condition. While they have been sufferers from the drought, the crops have been so far fairly good, and there is really no complaint to make.
